with fellow ADAer, James Carey) of the cited American Committee for Democracy and Intellectual Freedom. She was a sponsor of the American-Russian Institute-N.Y., cited as "Communist" by the Attorney General April 27, 1949, and cited as a "Communist-controlled" organization which was intimately linked with the Institute of Pacific Relations. (Sen. Jud. Comm., Report 2050, July 2, '52, pp. 73, 95, 145 & 146).

Dorothy Kenyon was a sponsor of the Conference on Pan-American Democracy, cited as a Communist front by the Special Committee on Un-American Activities Committee, House Report 1311, March 29, 1944, pages 129 & 161). She was also a sponsor of the Coordinating Committee to Lift the (Spanish) Embargo, cited as one in a "series of Communist enterprises which have dealt with Spain and the Spanish Civil War..." (Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 2233, June 7, 1946, page 27).

Dorothy Kenyon was also a member of the Lawyers Committee on American Relations with Spain, identified as a "Communist lawyers' front organization" by the Special Comm. on Un-American Activities (House Report 1311, 3/29/44, pp. 168 & 169).

Is it any wonder that the 1964 platform of the Americans for Democratic Action urges "that the Un-American Activities Committee of the House of Representatives be discontinued" and that the Attorney General's list of subversive organizations be abolished? ? ?

A common denominator among the vice chairmen of the ADA is their extreme hatred and disdain for the so-called radical right.

In 1954, Joseph L. Rauh, Jr., (then ADA National Chairman) paid $8,500 in expenses to obtain derogatory and, as it turned out, fictitious information against the late Senator Joseph McCarthy. Rauh's escapade resulted in a six-count Federal perjury indictment involving his informant, Paul Hughes. Hughes claimed that Rauh knew the anti-McCarthy information was false when he bought it.

Joseph Rauh claimed that he had "been taken." The result was an acquittal on the first two counts of Hughes' indictment, and a hung jury on the last four counts. In November 1958, the government recommended that Hughes not be retried because "During the trial the credibility of the major government witnesses (including Joseph Rauh) was severely attacked by its defense..." (McCarthy and His Enemies, by Wm. Buckley-L. Brent Bozell, page 402).

Joseph Rauh served as legal secretary during the depression to Supreme Court Justices Benjamin Cardozo and Felix Frankfurter for 3 years. He has been a partner in the law firm of Rauh and Levy since 1947 when he helped found ADA.

The following appeared in the May-June 1947 "Partisan Review":

"If socialism is to preserve democracy, it must be brought about step by step in a way which will not disrupt the fabric of custom, law, and mutual confidence upon which personal rights depend. That is, the transition must be piece-meal; it must be parliamentary; it must respect civil liberties and due process of law... There seems no inherent obstacle to the gradual advance of socialism in the United States..."

The above was written by ADA Vice Chairman Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., a former JFK White House Aid, and more recently an aid to fellow ADA member, Senator Hubert Humphrey, 1964 Democratic Vice-Presidential Candidate.

Arthur Schlesinger, Jr. has also stated in a speech, "If America survives, she must dispense with the Christian myth." (Borger News Herald, June 23, 1963)

ADA Vice chairman Leon Keyserling was consultant to the Senate Committee on Banking and Currency (1935-37 & 1944-46); General Counsel, U. S. Housing Authority (1937-38); consultant for the Senate postwar committee appointed to explore reconversion problems; member, Council of Economic Advisers (1946-50), Chairman 1950-53.

In a Senate speech on April 21, 1952, the late Senator Joseph McCarthy stated that when Leon Keyserling was approached to join the Communist Party, he replied that he (Keyserling) "agreed with all the principles except the necessity for a Negro republic in the South" and the "Communist Party's theory that the U. S. could be communized only through a bloody revolution." Senator McCarthy also declared that Leon Keyserling at one time said: "We can communize this country without a revolution if we have the economic power." (INS dispatch, April 22, 1952; Cong. Record, 4/21/52, page 4153)

Senator McCarthy related on April 21, 1952 that "The evidence presented to the Board (Commerce Department's Loyalty Board) shows that Mrs. Mary Dublin Keyserling had been a member of the Communist Party and that she belonged to an unlimited number of Communist fronts." On March 4, 1964, Mrs. Mary Dublin Keyserling was appointed Director of the Women's Bureau of the Department of Labor by President Johnson. (U. S. News & World Report, March 16, 1964)

Leon Keyserling was one of the American Jewish leaders at the economic conference convened in Jerusalem (1953), where Israel's economic program was discussed and plans outlined for the flotation of the 2nd Israel Bond Issue.

At the May 1962 Convention of the Americans for Democratic Action, John P. Roche of the Jewish Brandeis University in Waltham, Mass. was picked as Natl. Chairman.

As previously stated, the "blessed ties that bind" the ADA members together is their mutual contempt for the "ultra-right."

The Reuther brothers (Vic and Wal) submitted their infamous Reuther Memorandum "The Radical Right in America Today" to former Attorney General Robert Kennedy on Dec. 19, 1961. Here are a few excerpts.

"... the radical right poses a far greater danger to the success of this country in its battle against international Communism than does the domestic Communist movement... we must gird ourselves for a long struggle against the radical right."

ADA National Board member, Dore Schary is National Chairman of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith (ADL—Jewish FBI), which will release "Danger On The Right" in early October.

Arthur Schlesinger has written on "The Threat of the Radical Right." (N. Y. Times Magazine, June 17, 1962)

The ADA 1964 Platform "Program for Americans" closes with this paragraph:

"... the assassination of President John F. Kennedy epitomizes the consequences of hate and the totalitarian mentality of political extremes. The emergence of a radical right is especially dangerous today. Liberalism must oppose these forces with redoubled vigor."

The 1964 "platform" of the Communist Party, U.S.A. is expressed through a Sept. 1964 pamphlet by Communist spokesman Gus Hall—"The Eleventh Hour—Defeat the New Fascist Threat." On page 18 we find: "What is needed are a hundred thousand committees to defeat the ultra-Right." The closing paragraph (page 22) of "The Eleventh Hour" is as follows:

"We are Communists, and we are fighters for the broad issues of democracy and peace, part of democratic America. And so we are going to work with all of the forces who make up the legions of the broad people's democratic movement against the ultra-Right fascist conspiracy."

American principles and ideals are being betrayed by subterfuge and deception. This betrayal of the American way of life is spearheaded by the ADA radicals masquerading as "liberals." Unless their Trojan-horse methods are exposed and understood, America is doomed to be remade in the image of Marx.

Board Endorses Johnson-Humphrey

Statement from the National Board of Americans for Democratic Action meeting in Washington August 30, 1964.

"Americans for Democratic Action enthusiastically supports the Johnson-Humphrey ticket. Confronted by Goldwater's strident demands for a retreat to the 19th century, the Democratic Party did not scurry to cover but instead in its platform and its candidates chose to trumpet the assault, to confront squarely the Goldwater faction and its politics of despair, to summon all Americans to the implementation of our Democratic ideals.

Lyndon B. Johnson has superbly carried forward the ideals of John F. Kennedy and has demonstrated his full commitment to the liberal traditions of the Democratic Party and the American people. He has also moved boldly to initiate policies of his own, initiatives which indicate that the Johnson Administration—far from being a footnote to the Kennedy Administration—will chart its own course toward the vision of the 'Great Society'.

Hubert H. Humphrey has long been in the forefront of the struggle for freedom, justice and equality. From long friendship we of ADA know the breadth of his talents and the depth of his moral commitment and compassion. We applaud the President's choice and share with him the conviction that Hubert Humphrey is indeed the 'best man in the country' for the position of Vice President. We recognize that his election will mean the end of his organizational ties with ADA, but as Vice President he will give the nation an articulate and eloquent expression of liberal ideals as no other could do."
